Customer hereby gives notice of objection to any different or additional terms offered by Supplier in any response to the Purchase Order. Shipment of any Goods or the performance of any Services by Supplier shall be deemed to constitute Supplier’s assent to these Terms.

1. Communications and Change Orders.

(A) All written communications shall (i) be directed to the addresses set forth in the Purchase Order, (ii) refer to the Purchase Order number and (iii) be delivered in accordance with the Purchase Order.

(B) If Customer requires modifications to the Goods/Services, the Parties shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the form of a change order or amendment. Supplier shall not make any changes without Customer’s prior written consent.

2. Pricing, Terms of Payment, Taxes and Duties.

(A) The purchase price set forth in the Purchase Order shall be in US Dollars unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order, shall be firm and shall include Supplier’s overhead, insurance, packaging, storage and shipping, wages and other amounts owed to Supplier’s Representatives, including all administrative and travel expenses, taxes, customs, tariffs and all other costs, and expenses (including transfer pricing) applicable to the Goods/Services. The purchase prices for Goods (both tangible and intangible) and Services shall be separately stated. Supplier shall not be entitled to final payment unless and until it has furnished to Customer and/or executed such receipts, affidavits, releases of lien, or other evidence as may be required by Customer to establish to the satisfaction of Customer that no lien or claim exists. Supplier shall furnish a monthly statement certifying that all amounts due by the Supplier for wages, services and materials furnished by the Supplier, including the same for any of its Representatives, for the month covered by the Supplier’s invoice(s) have been paid. Supplier’s acceptance of final payment shall operate to release and discharge any and all claims of Supplier or any party that may claim by or through it, and any and all liability of Customer, hereunder or in connection herewith.

(B) Customer shall not be responsible for the payment of any taxes, customs, tariffs, fees or duties other than those required to be paid by Customer under Applicable Law (defined below) and which are clearly itemized on Supplier’s invoice(s). Customer shall provide tax exemption certificates or other applicable tax documents as reasonably requested by Supplier.

(C) Unless otherwise set forth in the Purchase Order, invoices are due and payable net one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of the Goods (including all documents required in the Purchase Order), performance of the Services, and a receipt of a correct undisputed invoice by Customer. Payment(s) shall be by electronic banking method identified in the Purchase Order.

3. Title, Risk of Loss, Delivery.

(A) Title to Goods, and title or license to Services, shall pass to Customer at the earlier of (i) payment by Customer or (ii) receipt of the Goods/Services by Customer per the delivery terms in the Purchase Order. In the event of advance or progress payments, Supplier shall (a) reasonably identify or otherwise mark the Goods/Services as Customer’s property; (b) sign and deliver such documents for Customer to confirm that title or license has passed to Customer; and (c) if requested by Customer, provide an advance payment bond acceptable to Customer. Goods/Services shall be delivered free and clear of all liens or claims.

(B) For Goods purchases, the Purchase Order shall state the (i) mode, manner and timing of delivery to Customer, its end user(s) or designee(s) and (ii) address of final destination. Regardless of the shipping terms used, risk of loss to the Goods shall remain with Supplier until Goods are in the possession, custody and control of Customer.

(C) Shipments sent C.O.D. without Customer's written consent will not be accepted and will be at Supplier's risk. Supplier is instructed to ship only the quantities specified in the Purchase Order. Any deviation caused by conditions of loading, shipping, packing, or allowances in manufacturing processes may be accepted by Customer only pursuant to a duly executed amendment or change order as set forth in Section 1(B). Customer reserves the right to return, without liability, any overshipment at Supplier's expense.

(D) Supplier shall comply with Customer's delivery dates at its sole cost unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing. If a delay originates with Supplier or its Representatives, Supplier shall be solely responsible for expedited delivery and other charges to meet delivery dates. Goods shipped in advance of Customer's delivery dates may, at Customer's option, be returned to Supplier at Supplier's expense. Customer reserves the right to delay shipment of the Goods for up to thirty (30) days at no additional cost.

(E) Time is of the essence with respect to Supplier's obligations hereunder. Supplier shall provide sufficient labor, material, services, management forces, plant facilities and equipment working such hours, including night shift, overtime, weekends and holidays as may be required by Customer to assure compliance with the established schedule and/or completion/delivery date. Supplier shall be solely responsible for the safe and lawful transportation of any personnel and Goods in connection with the performance required hereunder. If the Purchase Order does not specify liquidated damages, then Supplier shall be responsible for Customer's actual costs and damages resulting from late delivery of the Goods and/or Services. If liquidated damages for delay in delivery or completion are set forth in the Purchase Order, Supplier expressly agrees that (i) such liquidated damages were specifically negotiated by the Parties and are in lieu of Customer's actual damages for delay, which both Parties agree such damages would be difficult or impossible to calculate, (ii) such liquidated damages constitute a fair and reasonable estimate of the amount of damages that would be incurred by Customer in the event of such delays in delivery or completion of the Goods and/or Services in light of anticipated harm, and the difficulties of proof of and inconvenience or non-feasibility of obtaining any adequate remedy, (iii) such liquidated damages are not intended as and shall not be deemed or construed as penalties, and (iv) it waives any right to contest the validity or enforceability of such liquidated damages. Notwithstanding any such payment of liquidated damages for late delivery, Supplier shall remain obligated to meet the delivery terms.

4. Inspection and Quality Control. Customer, its Representatives and/or end user(s) may inspect, test, reject or accept Goods/Services during manufacture or performance. If inspections/tests are made on Supplier's premises, Supplier, without additional charge, shall provide reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of Customer's inspectors. Customer's inspections/tests will not unduly interfere with Supplier's business. Supplier shall maintain quality control and inspection systems as mutually agreed upon by the Parties and provide Customer with quality assurance documentation, manuals or certifications. Notwithstanding prior inspection or testing, payment, or passage of title, all Goods/Services shall be subject to final inspection and written acceptance at final destination, with such rights of inspection/rejection being in addition to any other rights or remedies of Customer under the Purchase Order or Applicable Law. If Customer rejects all or part of the Goods, Customer may return Goods to Supplier, at Supplier's sole risk and expense, for rework or replacement, and Supplier shall ship conforming Goods within ten (10) days of Supplier's receipt of the rejected Goods. If Customer determines, in its sole discretion, that Supplier is unable to rework or replace Goods within the time required by Customer, Customer may: (A) rework or have another supplier rework the Goods, the cost of such rework to be paid by Supplier; (B) return Goods to Supplier for full credit and obtain replacement from an alternate source, at Supplier's expense; or (C) produce replacement Goods at Supplier's expense. All Services found to be defective or nonconforming shall be re-performed at Supplier's expense.

(E) Customer's approval of Supplier's samples, prototypes or first articles shall not be construed as a waiver of any express or implied warranty.

(F) In addition to any other obligations set forth in this Article 5, Supplier shall pass through all assignable third-party manufacturers' warranties applicable to Goods/Services furnished by Supplier. In the event a third-party warranty is not assignable, Supplier shall enforce its warranty against a third-party at Supplier's expense upon Customer's reasonable request. Supplier shall immediately notify Customer in writing of product recalls and/or product safety notices that concern the Goods/Services.

(G) Customer shall have the right to assign all Supplier warranties under the Purchase Order to third parties including Customer's customers/end users who shall have all rights to enforce such warranty.

(C) With respect to Customer Furnished Property described in subsection 6(A)(iii) above, Supplier shall make no use of such Customer Furnished Property other than to properly off load, store and maintain the same as set forth in the Purchase Order and return the same to Customer in the condition when received by Supplier. Supplier shall clearly mark Customer Furnished Property to show Customer's ownership. The Purchase Order shall remain in effect so long as Supplier possesses Customer Furnished Property.

(D) Supplier shall ensure that the Customer Furnished Property does not become the subject of any lien, tax, charge, duty, encumbrance, defect or other impediment of the same or any other kind, and, without limiting any of its other obligations Supplier hereby indemnifies Customer in full against all costs, expenses and damages, including taxes, that Customer incurs or suffers, whether directly or indirectly, arising as a result of breach of this Section 6(D).

(E) Upon written notice from Customer, or expiration or termination of the Purchase Order (whichever first occurs), Supplier shall make available, return to Customer or dispose of Customer Furnished Property as Customer directs in writing or as otherwise may be set forth in the Purchase Order. Supplier shall make the Customer Furnished Property available for pickup by Customer at the Supplier's facility where present within ten (10) days after such written notice, which will constitute Supplier's delivery of the Customer Furnished Property to Customer. If Supplier fails to make the Customer Furnished Property available then, without limiting any of Customer's rights or remedies (i) Supplier shall, upon written demand from Customer pay Customer any expenses including without limitation legal costs incurred by Customer in tracing and recovering possession of the Customer Furnished Property, including the costs to seek and obtain an injunction or other writ to enter and remove said Customer Furnished Property from Supplier's or its Representative's premises with respect to which Supplier consents and agrees not to contest or defend.

The exterior of each shipping container or package will be clearly marked with Customer's Purchase Order number and country of origin, which shall also be marked on Goods, and any specified packaging/marketing requirements stated in the Purchase Order, in a clear, conspicuous and permanent manner. Supplier shall provide all necessary shipping documents, including, but not limited to, customs invoices and packing lists in accordance with Customer's requirements and Applicable Law. Damages and costs incurred by Customer, its Representative or end user resulting from Supplier or its Representative's failure to comply with this Section shall be paid by Supplier. Supplier shall not cause or permit any Work Product to be subject to any lien or encumbrance. Supplier hereby, irrevocably, in perpetuity and without further consideration, assigns to Customer all right, title and interest that Supplier, its Affiliates and/or Representatives has or may have in the future anywhere in the world in all Work Product.

(C) Works made for Hire: Customer will be considered the "person for whom the work was prepared" for purposes of determining the authorship of any copyright in Work Product, and all copyrightable aspects of Work Product will constitute "works made for hire" as that term is defined under Section 101 of the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, as amended ("Copyright Act"), or analogous provisions under other Applicable Laws, and will be owned exclusively by Customer upon creation. If (and to the extent) any of the foregoing (or any part or element thereof) is found as a matter of law not to be a "work made for hire" under Applicable Laws, Supplier hereby irrevocably, in perpetuity and without further consideration, assigns to Customer (its successors and assigns) all right, title and interest that Supplier has or may have in the future in and to all United States and foreign copyrights in Work Product and all copies thereof.

(D) Disclosure; Further Assurances: Supplier shall disclose and describe all Work Product to Customer and, promptly upon Customer's request, provide any requested information or documentation related to Work Product. Upon Customer's request, Supplier will execute and deliver to them all documents and provide all testimony necessary to register and enforce intellectual property rights in Work Product solely in the name of Customer (or its designee). Supplier irrevocably designates and appoints Customer (or its designee) and its legal representatives and nominees, as Supplier's agent and attorney-in-fact to prosecute and enforce any applications and intellectual property rights as to Work Product.

(E) Background License: Supplier hereby grants to Customer and its end user(s), a non-exclusive, freely transferable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide, license in and to, all Items owned or licensed by Supplier which are necessary for the use and enjoyment by Customer and its end user(s) of Goods/Services and Work Product hereunder.

(F) Third-Party Intellectual Property: Supplier shall not embed or incorporate any third-party intellectual property into Goods/Services without (i) Customer's written consent and (ii) Supplier providing to Customer and/or its end users a list of third-party intellectual property (contained within or necessary to use Goods/Services), together with royalty-free, paid-up licenses to Customer, its Affiliates and its or their end user(s). Any such license shall include a perpetual software license for software used in or required for the operation of Goods/Services, including but not limited to all modifications or additions to software, as well as related documentation and technical information. Any software maintenance or support service shall be the subject of an Exhibit to the Purchase Order.

(A) Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Customer, its Affiliates, and their Representatives and assigns from and against all claims, suits, causes of action, losses, liabilities, liens, damages, assessments, costs, expenses, demands, complaints or actions including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs (collectively "Claims") concerning (i) death, personal injury, or property damage arising or resulting from (a) Supplier or its Representative's negligence or willful misconduct, or (b) the Goods/Services furnished hereunder; (ii) nonpayment of wages, benefits, fees, amounts owed, and/or any taxes (including penalties and interest) associated therewith arising from Supplier's Representatives, suppliers, contractors, and/or materialmen which may include liens or encumbrances on the Goods/Services or the premises on which located; (iii) a challenge to title to the Goods/Services; (iv) infringement or misappropriation of any third-party's intellectual property rights in connection with the Purchase Order or Customer's, its Representatives or Customer's end user's use of the Goods/Services; (v) violation of Applicable Law; (vi) damage or loss to, or arising out of, or resulting from Customer Furnished Property; (vii) breach of the Siemens Energy Data Privacy Requirements for Personal Information, if applicable; or (viii) breach of the Purchase Order by Supplier or its Affiliate(s) or Representative(s).

(B) If Customer receives written notice of a Claim, Customer shall give prompt written notice to Supplier. Customer's delay or deficiency in notifying Supplier shall not relieve Supplier of liability or obligation unless such delay materially impacts the defense of the Claim. If the settlement of a Claim may result in ongoing liability to or detrimentally impacts Customer, its Affiliates, Representatives or end users, then such settlement shall require the prior written consent of Customer. Customer may have its own counsel at Customer's cost at all related proceedings.

(C) In case either Party reasonably believes the Goods/Services, or any part thereof, may be the subject of an intellectual property Claim, Supplier shall at its own expense: (a) procure Customer, its Representatives and/or end user's right to continue using the Goods/Services; (b) replace with substantially equivalent non-infringing Goods/Services; or (c) modify the Goods/Services in compliance with Applicable Laws so it becomes non-infringing.

(D) Supplier expressly and specifically waives its immunity under applicable workers' compensation and/or industrial insurance laws regarding liability against Customer, its Affiliates or its or their end users for Claims brought by Supplier's employees against any of them.

Supplier shall not copy, distribute or disclose Confidential Information except to those of its Representatives who have a need to know such Confidential Information as required to perform its obligations under the Purchase Order, provided that such Representatives are advised of and agree in writing to abide by the confidentiality obligations set forth herein or by confidentiality obligations (including those within employment agreements) that are at least as restrictive as those set forth herein. A Supplier shall not reverse engineer (to include: measure, conduct multi-dimensional scan/print), disassemble or decompose any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody Confidential Information. (C) Disclosures Required by Law: In the event Supplier is required by a court or federal, state or local agency to disclose Confidential Information, Supplier shall promptly notify Customer of such order so that Customer may seek a protective order or take any other action as it deems appropriate. In such circumstances, the Supplier shall exercise all reasonable efforts to disclose only the minimal amount of Confidential Information required to satisfy such order.

(D) Exclusions: Confidential Information will not include any information or data if Supplier can show that such information: (i) was or becomes generally available to the public through no breach of the Purchase Order by Supplier or its Representatives; (ii) was rightfully in Supplier's or its Representatives' possession prior to receipt from Customer; (iii) becomes rightfully available to Supplier or its Representatives from a source other than Customer who is free to lawfully disclose such information to Supplier or its Representatives; (iv) is approved for release by written agreement of Customer; or (v) is independently developed by Supplier or its Representatives, as evidenced by written records, without the use of Customer's Confidential Information. Confidential Information shall not be deemed to be in the public domain merely because any part of the Confidential Information is embodied in general disclosures or because individual features, components or combinations thereof are known or become known to the public.

(E) Return of Confidential Information: Confidential Information shall remain the property of Customer. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of a request from Customer, Supplier will return Customer's Confidential Information, including all copies thereof, or certify in writing to Customer that all Confidential Information received under the Purchase Order, including all copies thereof, has been destroyed.
