

QUALITY POLICY

SIEMENS ENERGY ENGINES BUSINESS, which carries out its activity in the plants of,

- ✓ SIEMENS ENERGY ENGINES S.A.U. dedicated to the "Design, manufacture, test, installation and service and support of rotating machinery, including diesel and gas engines, propulsion systems and marine auxiliaries, power and cogeneration systems" and
- ✓ SIEMENS ENGINES R&D S.A.U. dedicated to "Research, development, innovation and design in the field of internal combustion engines", are aware that their activity, competitiveness, profitability and market leadership are linked to achieving the operational excellence, customer satisfaction, anticipating their needs, and offering to the market innovative and quality products and services, considering the following basic principles to achieve its:

- Establish and review the Quality objectives, aligning them with the other action plans, and provide the necessary resources for their fulfilment.
- Comply all requirements from Third Parties, Customers, regulatory and legal which are applicable to the product, in both developing and manufacturing.
- Encourage a relationship of commitment and mutual trust with Clients to improve the satisfaction levels and their loyalty.
- Deploy the responsibility of working with quality at all levels, processes and people of the organization.
- Prepare, train and develop a capable human team, qualified, experienced, motivated, diverse, and integrated into a common organization project, with a sense of ownership and passionate for what he does, with behaviors of respect, initiative and creativity.
- Establish the continuous improvement as organization driver, based firmly in all people participation, in the problems analyze and improvement suggestions, and designing and defining robust products and processes, through the innovation and digitalization, that ensure the tendency towards "zero defects".
- Transmit to suppliers and partners the Quality Management and Continuous Improvement practices, encouraging an open, fluid, honest and transparent dialogue, to ensure the quality, price and on time supplies.
- Maintain and develop a certified Quality Management System ISO 9001: 2015 and integrated into the Corporate Systems.

The Management of SIEMENS ENERGY ENGINES BUSINESS assumes as his own responsibility to exercise a leadership of these basic principles, and generate value through the industrial activity, for employees, shareholders and the community in general by the achievement of positive results in the management of the Company, that ensures the future of the Organization and its employees, and for all that the recognition of the Community.