Siemens to pay dividend of €3.90 per share

- Annual Shareholders' Meeting ratifies acts of Managing and Supervisory Boards by large majorities

At today's 54th ordinary Annual Shareholders' Meeting of Siemens AG, shareholders approved the distribution of a dividend of €3.90 per share for fiscal 2019, as proposed by the Managing and Supervisory Boards. The dividend for fiscal 2019 was thus €0.10 higher than the dividend for fiscal 2018. The company has now increased its dividend six years in a row.

The Annual Shareholders' Meeting also ratified the acts of the members of the Managing and Supervisory Boards for fiscal 2019. The proposals on these and the other agenda items were approved by large majorities.

Siemens AG (Berlin and Munich) is a global technology powerhouse that has stood for engineering excellence, innovation, quality, reliability and internationality for more than 170 years. The company is active around the globe, focusing on the areas of power generation and distribution, intelligent infrastructure for buildings and distributed energy systems, and automation and digitalization in the process and manufacturing industries. Through the separately managed company Siemens Mobility, a leading supplier of smart mobility solutions for rail and road transport, Siemens is shaping the world market for passenger and freight services. Due to its majority stakes in the publicly listed companies Siemens Healthineers AG and Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy, Siemens is also a world-leading supplier of medical technology and digital healthcare services as well as environmentally friendly solutions for onshore and offshore wind power generation. In fiscal 2019, which ended on September 30, 2019, Siemens generated revenue of €86.8 billion and net income of €5.6 billion. At the end of September 2019, the company had around 385,000 employees worldwide. Further information is available on the Internet at www.siemens.com.
