(2) ¹A counterproposal and its supporting information need not be made available:

Section 127 Election nominations by shareholders

¹Section 126 shall apply mutatis mutandis to a nomination by a shareholder for the election of members of the supervisory board or independent auditors. ²Such nomination need not be supported by a statement of the reasons therefor. ³The management board need not make such nomination available if the nomination fails to contain information pursuant to Section 124 (3) sentence 4 and Section 125 (1) sentence 5.  1. the intermediaries who hold shares in the company in custody,
 2. the shareholders and intermediaries who have requested such communication and
 3. the shareholders' associations that have requested such communication or exercised voting rights at the preceding shareholders' meeting.

²The day of the communication shall not be counted.

³If the agenda must be amended in accordance with Section 122 (2), such amended agenda shall be communicated in the case of listed companies. ⁴The communication shall indicate the option of exercising voting rights by a proxy, including by a shareholders' association. ⁵In the case of listed companies, any nomination for the election of supervisory board members must be accompanied by details of their memberships in other supervisory boards whose establishment is required by law; details of their memberships in comparable domestic and foreign controlling bodies of business enterprises should also be provided.

Prior to the Shareholders' Meeting, shareholders who have given due notification of attendance or their proxy representatives may submit statements on the items on the agenda by means of electronic communication. Management's position, if any, on them will also be made available in the above-mentioned Internet Service. The Notice of Shareholders' Meeting describes how shareholders obtain access to the Internet Service.

Statements will not be made available if the Executive Board would render itself criminally liable by making them available, if the statement contains manifestly false or misleading information in material respects or is libelous, or if the person submitting the statement indicates that he or she will neither attend nor be represented at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The possibility of submitting statements does not constitute a means of submitting questions before the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to Section 131 (1a) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Consequently, any questions contained in statements will not be answered at the virtual Shareholders' Meeting, unless they are asked as part of the right to speak at the Shareholders' Meeting. Proposals, election nominations and objections to resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting contained in the statements will likewise not be considered. These must be submitted or declared solely in the manner specified separately in the Notice of Shareholders' Meeting.

Pursuant to Section 131 (1) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), shareholders or their proxy representatives may also request at the Shareholders' Meeting that the Executive Board provide information regarding the Company's affairs, the Company's legal and business relationships with affiliated companies, and the position of the Group and any companies included in the Consolidated Financial Statements to the extent that such information is necessary to allow a proper evaluation of an item on the agenda. Pursuant to Section 131 (1d) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), there is also a right at the Shareholders' Meeting to ask follow-up questions on all answers given by the Executive Board at the Shareholders' Meeting and on the questions asked in addresses at the Shareholders' Meeting.

3. with regard to the difference between the value at which items are shown in the annual balance sheet and the higher market value of such items, unless the shareholders' meeting is to approve the annual financial statements;
